

FALL SESSION, 1-ACT PLAY: "HAMLET HEARS A HOO"

Forget rhyming couplets! Forget Elizabethan English! This is Shakespeare as Dr. Seuss would have written it. You'll love this Shakespearean classic told in Dr. Seuss rhyme, sprinkled with contemporary references to add to the silliness! Sure, Hamlet still battles his own troubles as he seeks the truth behind his father's untimely death, but this humorous retelling also has Ikea-style furniture and characters who won't put down their cell phones. Their ringtones are personalized, so of course, Ophelia's is a wedding processional. And in answer to Hamlet's eternal question, 'To be or not — why can't I hear it?' his father's Starbucks-sipping ghost replies, 'What you need's a helpful spirit!' The hilarious action and dialogue make this play a favorite for parents and students alike!
